LARGEST BELL STOCKHOLDER. MONTREAL FETES THE ROOTS.

MACKAY COMPANIES RECENT IN-VESTMENTS DISCLOSED.

It Holds Interests in Many Bell Companies as Well as Telegraph Companies, and in the American Telephone and Telegraph Company the Largest Interest.

In the listing of the stock of the Mackay Companies in the Stock Exchange yesterday there was brought out the interesting information that the company is the largest stockholder in the American Telephone and Telegraph Company. This is the Bell holding company. In addition it was shown that the Mackay Companies has stock holdings in a large number of important subsidiary Bell companies.

That the Mackay Companies had acquired a large holding in the parent Bell company was shown in the last annual report, but that it had attained the distinction of the largest stockholder came as a surprise to the Street. Apparently, it was concluded, the Mackay Companies has well under way a plan for acquiring a controlling interest and has used the more than $9,000,-000 preferred stock issued in the past few months as well as other assets by way of accomplishing that purpose.

The statement filed with the Stock Exchange authorities is the first public compilation or the companies in which the Mackay Companies is interested. The amount of the holdings in the various companies is not given, but it is shown that, including the entire capital stock of the Commercial Cable Company and various Postal Tele-graph Companies, the holding company has stock in 102 cable, telegraph and tele-

SMACKSMEN IN PERIL.

One Doryman Drowned and Two Found Out at Sea Lashed to Wreckage.

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., Jan. 23 .- Five fishing smacks and their crews have been missing since the sudden gale yesterday afternoon scattered the cod fleet off this city. Some of the boats and crews are believed to have made harbor ahead of the storm further up the coast, but there is anxiety about the others. John Gardner and Emil Manseka, the latter a Swede helper, were thrown into the sea by the capsizing of their dory in the blast, and Gardner was drowned. Manseka clung to the upturned boat and was picked up nearly dead from exposure by the crew of the smack Elizabeth.

The sloop Lillie, with Harry Genkler and Will Conover aboard, has not yet been reported. Elmer Strickland and Charles Jeffries, both daring sailors, started out in a dory for the fishing banks just before the storm broke and have not yet returned. Fishermen declare that no small boat could have lived in the terrific seas, and the wives of the two men are nearly crazed in the belief that they have been drowned. Late to-night a report was received from the United States life saving station at Beach Haven saying that Strickland and Jeffries had been picked up twelve miles out at sea by members of the life saving

The fishing schooner Admiral Schley weathered the storm and is on her way to port: The Lillie Grubb, another boat reported to have been lost in the gale, was located to-night by members of the life saving station in Great Egg Harbor Bay. Her captain reported that he barely had time to reach the harbor when the storm broke. Even in Great Egg Harbor Bay his men were compelled to pump incessantly. his men were compelled to pump incessantly to keep the boat from sinking during the height of the storm.

GRANBY LISTED.

Stock Exchange Takes It Off the Curb as It Did Mackay Companies.

The stock of the Granby Consolidated Mining, Smelting and Power Company, Limited, was ordered listed on the Stock Exchange yesterday. The amount of stock accepted is $10,308,100, which has recently been changed from $10 certificates to $100 certificates. A balance of $3,191,900 outstanding in $10 certificates will be admitted as soon as transferred.

The company owns copper mines in British Columbia and paid in 1906 dividends aggregating 12 per cent. on an outstanding aggregating 12 per cent. on an outstanding capital of $13,500,000. The company is the first mining company to be taken on the Exchange since the action of the Produce Exchange in preparing to deal in mining and minor industrial securities prompted the authorities to encourage the listing of mining stocks on the big exchange. It was considered significant that one of the leading curb industrials, Mackay Companies, was also taken off the curb yesterday. Many other of the prominent curb stocks, it was said yesterday, will soon be dealt in on the Stock Exchange.

QUIET DAY FOR BOSTON COPPERS Atlantic Stock Boosted by Rich Strike -Lake Combine Lags.

Boston, Jan. 23.-Stocks had a comparatively quiet day in Boston, though strong features were not lacking in the copper group.

The Atlantic mine, one of Boston's famous old coppers of the Stanton group and in its day a good dividend payer, has made a strike in the Baltic lode. It suggested a rise from 151/2 to 18% in the stock, and the gain was held well. Trinity opened at 39, yielded 1/2 and rallied to 40, but dealings became quiet this afternoon.

The details of the proposed Lake Superior combination still are lacking. Opinion seems to indicate some difficulty in getting into line all the properties desired. The Bigelow group is supposed to be settled on as participating, also the Quincy. Some disagreement as to terms holds back Copper Range. The first idea was that everything save the Calumet and Hecla and its new La Salle would go in. Now there is

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 23 .- William C. Allison, member of a famous old Philadelphia family, married his cousin's wife to-day. She had just got a divorce from her husband, J. Wesley Allison. William C. Allison had just got a divorce from his wife. William C. and J. Wesley Allison are 33 and 34 years old, respectively, and are grandsons of William Clairs Allison, the famous car builder. William C. Allison entered Dickinson College a year ahead of his cousin. He 20 years old.

William C. got over his disappointment and was soon married.

William C. did not meet Mrs. J. Wesley for some years after her marriage. The two families were thrown together by chance in 1905, and William C. invited Wesley and his wife to take a yachting trip. #### ITALIAN BOY KIDNAPPED.

ceived the Usual Threatening Letter. Vincent Palermo, an Italian baker with two stores, one at 600 Flushing avenue, Williamsburg, over which he lives, and the other at 95 Hopkins street, received a threatening letter on Saturday demanding $500. The letter contained a cross in blood and a stiletto drawn in pencil.

Palermo paid no attention to the letter and on Monday he received another. In this he was told he was very foolish for not acceding to the demands of the writers and warning him that unless he came to time within three days that his house and family would be blown up. Palermo's wife wanted him to inform the police of the Vernon avenue station. He told her that he had been reading so much about Black Hand societies that he took no more stock in them.

On Tuesday afternoon Palermo's six-yearold son, Mariano, went into an open lot not far away to play with other boys. An Italian about 25 years old came among them and was seen talking to the Palermo boy. A few minutes later the other boys ran out of the lot. When they looked around for Mariano they didn't see him.
Nothing was thought of it until about 4 o'clock, when the boy's mother began calling him. There was no response, and when she asked the child's companions where he was they told her about the man who had been seen talking to the boy.

Mrs. Palermo called her husband and they made a search, but were unable to obtain any tidings of the boy. Neighbors aided in the hunt and late on Tuesday night the police of the Vernon avenue station were notified. Detectives who were put on the case learned that the Italian who was seen talking to the boy had been observed loitering in the neighborhood for several weeks and had come to be known as Joe. The police got a good description of this Italian and sent out a general alarm for him. On Tuesday afternoon Palermo's six-year-

EVE OF GREAT RISE IMPORTANT ON TRINITY

Trinity, the most active stock on the Exchange, after tugging all day at ity moorings 39-40 in a way which told the dullest that if is to more than fulfil my every prediction, made the highest closing to-night, 40, of any since the movement began. Trinity's action to-day and the undiminished stream of orders from all over the country leads me to say an earnest word to all interested in the big rise, which is about here.

During the advance I trust all holders will use their calm and sober judgments that the rise may be gradual and steady. As Trinity at 75 will show surer signs of going to 100, and at 100 of going higher, there should be no justification for the wild scramble to buy and sell which usually is part of a big rise. All holders should feel confident that wherever Trinity goes, it will eventually remain and make for itself a permanent, always active market. This is because of its intrinsic worth, which, from time to time, will be brought out until all will actually know it.

Therefore it should behoove those fortunate investors who aiready have obtained their stock to sit by and watch it, and pay no heed to those brokers, who, having tried to persuade them against purchasing at 11, will now frantically demand:

"Sell and bag your profits" as I said "Buy Trinity" just as confidently when it was 11, as I say "Buy Trinity" now when it has risen almost 300 per cent, and demonstrated the soundness of my prediction. I think perhaps it will be safe for all holders to look to me for advice rather than to those whose advice in the past has not been over-beneficialto those who took it.

I recommend to those who will have tremendous profits at 75 to keep constantly before them the history of my campaigns on Butte, Tri-Mountain and Copper Range.

I advised the purchase of Butte at 2. Many of those who saw it rise to 50 could ot restrain themselves from taking their large profits. Yet it went steadily along to 130 and is to-day 116. Therefore the profit from 50 up was even greater than from up to 50. I advised the purchase of Tri-Mountain at 10. It steadily mounted and many could not resist the temptation to take their profits at 40. Yet it continued to 125 and to-day is 96. It was the same in Copper Range. From 10 to 40 many took profits, yet it went to 105 and to-day is 95 and the profits, therefore, in Tri-Mountain and in Copper Range were greater above 40 than from 10 to 40.

I give these few words of caution now, because when the whirl is on in the coming om, it may be too late, and I should dislike to see Trinity, because of over-eager buyers, fly by 75, 100 and over, and, as in the case of Tri-Mountain, go 25 points beyond what it should have gone, only to fall back, thereby causing loss to some, where otherwise there would have been only an unbroken trail of grateful profit takers.

I repeat: As President of the Trinity Copper Company, and as an individual, advise unqualifiedly, the purchase of Trinity stock at any price under $65 per share.

The property is located in the proven "BUTTE MONTANA" mineral zone in which the first failure to discover commercial ore with reasonable development is yet to be recorded. It is in the very heart of that section which has recently uncovered the most remarkable copper ore bodies ever encountered in the Butte district at the same depth.

The group lies just across the basin east of the "BOSTON & MONTANA'S" principal nes; immediately to the west and adoining lies the "BULLWHACKER," owned and operated by PATRICK CLARK and the MARCUS DALY ESTATE, and also three roperties operated by the LEWISOHN DEVELOPMENT COMPANY; immediately adjoining on the north lies the "BIRTHA" group, and to the south four properties are being developed by large stockholders of the "CALUMET & HECLA." "THE PITTS-BURGH & MONTANA" properties lie 1,800 feet to the west, and the "COLLEEN BAWN" is directly on the strike of its veins.

In fact, all these shipping mines which are making such wonderful records are immediately contiguous to and carry the six veins opened on the "BUTTE EXEMPTION" ground, the developments of which have absolutely proven to considerable depth the existence of immense pay shoots. Several carloads of ore have been shipped from the "COL-LEEN BAWN" and "EXEMPTION," taken from the 125-foot levels, giving returns of 10 per cent. copper and 51/2 oz. in silver.

A comparatively small amount of development work will prove these veins and should place this Company in the ranks of the large producers in Butte.

Thorough examinations of the property have been made by JOHN C. ADAMS, Superintendent of the "BOSTON & MONTANA," and N. E. LINSLEY, Consulting Engineer of the FEDERAL MINING & SMELTING COMPANY, both of whom indorse it as a property of intrinsic value and great promise.
